1. Eau d'Hadrien by Annick Goutal is my signature scent (visit bloomingdales.com).

2. I collect antique and vintage shagreen eyeglass cases and accoutrements.

3. I love the gorgeous coat and plucky demeanor of Rufus, my Abyssinian cat, adopted from The Marin Humane Society (marinhumanesociety.org).

4. This printed linen from my Suzanne Tucker Home textile collection is named after my daughter, Hatley, and was inspired by an antique English document from 1830.

5. The bronze hares by Welsh sculptor Barry Flanagan always put a smile on my face (visit berggruen.com for more information).

6. I can't deny my English roots: I drink Fortnum & Mason Royal Blend Tea, which I order from the London store (visit fortnumandmason.com).

7. I am so excited about my upcoming second book Suzanne Tucker Interiors: The Romance of Design, being published in October by The Monacelli Press.
