

One decorator detail that pulls a room together?

“TRIMS, APPLYING TRIMS TO WINDOW TREATMENTS, UPHOLSTERY, OR PILLOWS ADDS A SUBTLE, FINISHED LOOK.”

Dream china pattern that you wish every client wanted? The Serenitas Collection by Suzanne Tucker Home for Bloomingdale's (theserinitas.com)

Jan Showers
Favorite detail?

The "Coco" from the Jan Showers Collection—we designed it because we didn't find anything like it. (janshowers.com)

Your favorite coffee table accessory?

Books. It adds style and interest, and keeps the table from looking like the requisite one piled high with "coffee table" books.

Dream china pattern that you wish every client wanted?

For me, it's not about one china pattern, but a wonderful collection of them. I don't own full sets of china, complete with five-piece place settings and all the various serving pieces like gravy boats and sugar bowls. Instead, I prefer to create my own (usually monochromatic) service. But I always have a favorite color palette to color the various pieces.

Best kids' furniture?

Anything at Coggle (coggle.com) for beds and dining. I like a lot for kids. I have just my niece when my daughter "Hayworth" (Hayworth) from (hayworth.com)

Best way to display family pictures?

The most important thing is to group family pictures together so siblings can be together, rather than sprinkling them around. We get more requests for this, but it's critical to make sure that the frames are all similar in color and material.

Suzanne Rheinstein
Favorite floral print?

I have never found a clean hand-drawn floral print used on the reverse side as they look so much better. I designed my "Garden Home" print for Lee Jaffe, "Garden Home," with that look in mind. (suzanne.com)
