SUZANNE TUCKER'S LATEST COLLECTION OF OUTDOOR FURNISHINGS FOR MICHAEL TAYLOR DESIGNS ARRIVES JUST IN TIME FOR SUMMER. Award-winning San Francisco interior designer Suzanne Tucker worked side-by-side with the legendary Michael Taylor whose now iconic "California Look" took the design world by storm. Often referred to as his protégée, Tucker has interpreted Taylor's mastery of scale and proportion, as well as his love for the clean lines and perfect pitch of classic 18th-century furniture, into a timeless and elegant outdoor furniture collection suitable for a wide variety of design styles. Tucker's "Riviera" Collection for Michael Taylor Designs pays homage to the chic yet casual lifestyle of Santa Barbara—her hometown, often referred to as the Riviera of the West. The Collection includes a teak available in two finishes and hand-woven resin wicker dyed to mimic the random colorations of real wicker. www.michaeltaylordesigns.com

DESIGNER WEDNESDAYS

The San Francisco Design Center is holding to-the-trade lunch and learn events. Now in its 14th year, Designer Wednesday at San Francisco Design Center offers designers the opportunity to grow their businesses by participating in high-value seminars that offer fresh perspectives on everything from image and branding to small space design and wallpaper trends. On Wednesday, May 4, design professionals will learn about Business Consulting with Jon Van Dinther. And on June 1, guest speakers Ken Baxtor and Cindy Bayon will answer the question: What does the contractor need from you? www.sfdesigncenter.com ◆
